

Chapter 18.08 – Definitions

Sections:

18.08.010 Definitions.

18.08.010 Definitions.

The following definitions are hereby adopted for the use in this title;

- A. "Business" means and includes all trades, occupations, professions or activities engaged in within the City of Arco, and carried on for the purpose of gain or economic profit unless otherwise specifically provided.
- B. "City" when spelled with a capital "C" means the City of Arco.
"City Council" means the City Council of Arco.
"City clerk" or "clerk" means the City Clerk of Arco.
- C. "Itinerant vendor" means any person, firm, or corporation engaged or employed in the business of retailing to consumers by going from consumer to consumer, on the public streets, sidewalks, alleys and/or other public places, and there soliciting, selling, or offering to sell any goods, wares, merchandise or services.
- D. "Non-resident" means any person who does not qualify as a resident as defined in this ordinance.
- E. "Operator" means any person who has the ability to exert power or influence over the daily decisions required in maintaining a business.
- F. "Owner" means any person who holds a monetary interest in a business.
- G. "Residence" means a building used as a home or the place where one actually lives.
- H. "Resident" means any person whose domicile or stationed business has been located within the City of Arco, with a bona fide intent to make this his/her place of permanent abode or business, for a continuous period of not less than six (6) months immediately preceding the date of application for any license required under the provisions of this ordinance.
- I. "Transient merchant" means every person, firm or corporation who brings onto public premises a stock of goods, wares, articles of merchandise, notions, or other articles of trade and who solicits, sells, offers to sell, or exhibits for sale such stock of same with an intent to remain at such location for a period of one year or less. Transient merchant also includes every person, firm or corporation who solicits, sells, offers to sell, or exhibits for sale such stock of same for a period of one year or less from any stand, vehicle, trailer, tent, rack or any vehicle shelter or structure which is not permanently affixed to real property.
- J. "Violated" or "violating" means that there exists reasonable cause to believe that any ordinance, code, statute or law has been or is being violated and is not limited to pleas of guilty or convictions for violating said ordinances, codes, statutes, or laws.